

Repurposed - Leader Kit: Memoirs of Nehemiah

Repurposed: Memoirs of Nehemiah - Leader Kit is a young adult Bible Study that reveals the story of Nehemiah and how his effort to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem translate to rebuilding our community of faith. In his second release from Threads, Mike Hurt examines the memoirs of Nehemiah, builder of walls and communities, and applies principles from this regular man's life that can restore the faith of the modern Christian community. (5 sessions) Video sessions use present-day film shorts shot in New Orleans; discussion-driven resource features stories of rebuilding that will connect with the hearts of your young adults and engage them in a fresh way. The enhanced CD contains leader guide, music playlists, PDFs, audio files to send throughout the week, and other ideas to discover more and connect deeply with Bible stories heard years ago in Sunday School. Member Book also sold separately. Leader Kit Includes: One Member Book Enhanced CD with leader guide DVD with video segments, bonus features, and promotional tools Author: Mike Hurt is the senior pastor of Parkway Church in Victoria, Texas. A leading thinker and trainer in small group ministry, Mike is passionate about finding ways to reach people who don't know Christ and to see those who do know Christ connect in authentic biblical community. Before pastoring Parkway, Mike was a senior leader at McLean Bible Church and Frontline where he led the Small Group Ministry. He also led MBC to become a multi-site church with six campuses.
