

Hancock Hill

Your first love disappears the day after your first glorious date, and maybe the violence that drove her away, that people are whispering about, was your fault. As years pass, you are fixated on your lost love, committing appalling, obsession-induced emotional blunders. Meanwhile, you and your best friend are about to perfect a radical new technology that will change the world, but your new girlfriends rich and powerful father wants you and your invention to vanish. Where does it end when obsession and blunders and the promise of a better world implode around you? Back on Hancock Hill, where it all began.
