My Neighbor, My Sister, My Friend We are all travelers for a time on this planet earth. As we travel together through life, we learn to value differences of one another and treasure the uniqueness of each, knowing that we are all children of our Father in heaven. In the true spirit of sisterhood, we learn to reach out to one another and bear testimony of our common goals. So writes Ardeth Greene Kapp, former general president of Young Women in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. In My Neighbor, My Sister, My Friend, you will read her thoughts on Faith Times of discouragement and of joy Spirituality Marriage and motherhood Self-control Time management This is a book for every woman, a book of affirmation, inspiration, and hope. Better Than You Think You Are When we feel the need for encouragement, when we wonder about our worth or our ability, we need a little reassuring note or whisper in the ear, You are better than you think you are. This book offers that needed boost, acknowledging that we all face weighty responsibilities that seem overwhelming at times. We all have doubts and fears. Drawing on Christs love for us, we can remove the dark clouds that challenge our confidence, even in adversity. Writes bestselling author Ardeth Kapp, With the Lords help we are always far, far better than we can be by ourselves. Doing What We Came To Do What does it mean to live a life of love? Our capacity to give and receive love is a hallmark of discipleship, and evidence of our deepest desires and our understanding of Gods plan for us. Love helps us see ourselves as God sees us. Love enables us to bless others as we reach past our own concerns. Love provides opportunities to heal, to hope, and to have faith - even when dreams have to wait and the challenges of life weigh us down. When we are filled with love, we can make a profound difference in our own lives, in our homes and circles of influence, and in the world in which we live. Love makes it possible for us to do what we came to do.
