

Fight the Good Fight: A Battle Plan for Life

Have you ever asked yourself the big questions in life: Why am I here? What principles do I hold dear? Is there a God, and what does he expect of me? After losing both parents as a teenager, Spencer Silverglate spent 30 years searching for answers to these questions. Now an accomplished trial lawyer with a family of his own, Silverglate shares his insight in Fight the Good Fight. Written as a letter to his teenage son, the book takes timeless principles and boils them down to ten life lessons: Its not about you You can live without anything--except purpose Life is hard--choose to fight Character is what you do when no one is looking Most of life is about showing up Whatever you choose to do, do it with all your heart Worldly pursuits will never satisfy you completely You were destined for greatness* You were born to love *Life is a journey, not a destination Fight the Good Fight will give you a compelling vision for life according to Gods plan.
