

Glencoe, A Romance of Scotland

(Scottish Historical) In the aftermath of the 17th century massacre that rocked Scotland with its infamy, two clans embodied the essence of rivalry and revenge. Niall MacDonald was a chieftain by default, driven to atone for his failed duty. Meg Campbell was his hostage held for ransom against the ambition of a clan. They were fated to be rivals, but destined to be lovers. Captive to their respective family loyalties, Meg and Niall must resolve the battle within their hearts as they unwillingly fall in love amid the last snows of a bitter Highland winter.
