

30 and Single: Your guide to living a fulfilled life while waiting

We tend to wait impatiently for everything in life, including LOVE. We focus more on chasing love and trying to detach ourselves from being single that we miss out on living life. Being Single can be very challenging at times just ask Crystal Hall, a 31 year old single woman who is faced with the challenges of being single in her 30s. No biological children not even a prospect in sight. Can you say feelings of anxiety? All of her friends are getting married, are married, starting families and she is singled out. At 31 we feel that we should already have it all together, the house, the husband, the kids and the life of fulfillment. But thats not the case here. You may be approaching 30 or in your first few years of the forbidden age and youre experiencing loneliness, anxiety and worry because it just hasnt happened yet. You may have had a few relationships that you thought was it but it just never reached that point. Now youre tainted with the thought of it never happening and it leaves you frustrated and unfulfilled. Can you relate? Single life isnt meant to be a damper on your life, singleness is meant for preparation. We get so anxious with the thought of how happiness is created that we lose focus on creating it. Our wait times are slim to none and if it doesnt happen now we believe that it will never happen. But it will! Journeying through this book you will Learn what it means to wait Unpack the baggage of your past and let go of it Learn how to enjoy quality time with YOURSELF and become content in your season. Learn standards through godly principles Learn how a courtship will alleviate some of the drama that worldly dating entails. Learn how to build your happiness and trust that God has his best interest for you at heart. Just trust your season.
