

Multiple Sclerosis - (in)curable?!

After the author Susanne Bergmann herself was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, they began looking for a way to halt the disease. After consulting various specialists that not originate from the neurological medical field as homeopath, alternative practitioners, meditation and Reiki teachers and to further own research, how and why a body is fully functioning, she came to new insights and results, which showed her those medical doctors, are not always right. She now lives absolutely symptom-free and shares her experiences in this book.
