

Voices That Control Me

Travis shares what his day was like with hallucinations and delusions that are attributed to him having Schizophrenia. Travis has voices nearly every day that ask him to punish himself or hurt himself. The voices are from his schizophrenia and they are always telling him lies that he has to be punished because he has autism. Travis is better able to fight off the voices now days because of his super strong medication. Travis lives a happy life even though life is more challenging for him. He speaks very openly about a hallucination where he thought he had cancer and tried to cut out his Thyroid in this book. This book is a look into the reality of life for people with psychosis and Schizophrenia. This is a great book for parents of people with psychosis and educators or doctors to read.
