

Dangerous Charade

To escape an arranged marriage Gabrielle Broussard flees her home and becomes an undercover investigator with an elite, all-female investigative agency. Her first assignment, as governess at Westford castle to investigate the suspicious death of the Countess of Westford, quickly becomes complicated when she finds herself attracted to her number one suspect. Lord Julien Blackwell is a survivor. After his fathers bankruptcy, he becomes a self-made man in Victorian Englands booming industrial era. Trapped into a loveless marriage, he has survived the shock of his wifes sudden death. But now he must survive rumors and outright accusations. Hiring a private agency to investigate and prove his innocence seems like a good idea...until desire threatens to compromise both the case and the life of the investigator.
